DON'T LISTEN TO THE CROAKINGS of a few mossbacks. Such fables as—"What can a man do in such times as these?" "What chance does one man stand?" These sayings may have passed in the days of witchcraft. But civilization has advanced to a point where "bugaboos" have lost their weight. There is no task that a man cannot accomplish. Take yourself as an example: you can become independent if you put your mind to the task and work. Park Valley is offering you the opportunity. Will you accept it? By getting in now you will create an independence for yourself with in the next five years. This is too good; a thing to put off. Come and see us at once.
